Chained and additional actions

Link A goes to page two, then /Next asks for the canary.

Link B is NextPage, then /Next asks for the canary.

Link C goes to page two, then /Next [URI, Launch, JavaScript].

Link D is an https link, then /Next asks for the canary.

Link E has no /A; its /AA mouse-up action asks for the canary.

Link F goes to page three; its /AA declares every trigger.

Link G goes to page two through a /Next cycle.

Link H has no /A; its /AA has mouse-down, then mouse-up.

Link I has no /A; its /AA has mouse-up, then mouse-down.

Link J has no /A; its /AA has only a mouse-down action.

Link K has no /A; its /AA has mouse-up and mouse-enter.

Link L asks for the canary, then /Next asks for it again.

Field one: Typed

Field two: Second

Field three: Third

Page two of three.

Page three of three.